

Family Law

Chambliss represents clients in the most personal and difficult issues affecting family life. Our compassionate team of attorneys, including a trained Family and General Civil Mediator, provides advice and counsel to clients in all aspects of family law matters and litigation. We advise on marital issues including distribution or division of property, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, post-divorce enforcement and modification, as well as mediation and appeals. We also counsel on alimony arrangements, child custody and parenting issues, adoptions, surrogacy agreements, and guardianships. We maintain constant communication with our domestic relations clients, ranging from professionals to small business owners to stay-at-home moms.

We are adept at handling all aspects of family law cases, giving careful consideration to family dynamics. Our primary goal is ensuring our clients' legal rights are protected, and they are presented with all options available to them to make the best choices for themselves and their loved ones. We are able to provide individualized, comprehensive solutions for all of our clients because we have the support from others in the firm in areas like estate planning, tax, corporate, real estate, and bankruptcy.

Experience

Routinely represents spouses in bringing and defending divorce cases

Routinely advises on new and reoccurring child custody issues

Advises business owners regarding issues of value and ownership created in divorce cases

Represents individuals when spouses have fled the country

Related Services

- Class Actions
- Commercial Litigation
- Insurance Coverage and Claims
- Litigation and Risk Management
- Medical Malpractice

Related Industries

- Individuals, Families, Estates, and Trusts

Related People

- Cecilia Young Garrett
- Peggy S. Bates
- James F. "Jim" Exum, III
- Rebecca H. Miller
- Harold L. "Hal" North, Jr.
- Martha F. Taylor
- Jennifer M. Ball
- Christopher D. "Chris" Poole

Represents individuals on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction under the Hague Convention when a parent either unlawfully brings a child to the U.S. or a parent unlawfully removes a child from the U.S.

