

Shelton Chambers to Present at 2022 TBA Tax Law Forum

Shelton Chambers will present at the Tennessee Bar Association (TBA) 2022 Tax Law Forum in Nashville on September 30, 2022. This year's topics will include: SECURE Act updates, state business, ethics, and more. This event is open to TBA members and non-members, and will be submitted for CLE credit.

For more information or to register for the TBA Tax Law Forum, visit the TBA registration page.

Shelton is a member of our estate planning and tax teams and has over 10 years of experience with dual law and accounting degrees. She often serves as a trusted advisor for high net worth clients and family-owned businesses, while advising in all areas of estate and tax planning. For more information on her practice and experience, please visit Shelton's bio.