

Stephany Pedigo Successfully Represents Clients by Bringing to Light Forgeries and Attempted Fraud

Stephany Pedigo recently represented clients in separate matters where a will and power of attorney were proven to be forged. Her representation protected the clients' rights in each action and resulted in justice for each of them. Stephany was able to make the interplay of Tennessee statutes, the rules of the courts, and expert witnesses create an environment for success.

Combating financial crimes and exploitation against our community's most vulnerable is something our firm takes very seriously. If you or someone you know is in a similar situation and requires the assistance of an estate planning professional, please contact Stephany or a member of our estate and trust administration section.

Stephany is an attorney in our estate and trust administration section. For more than 20 years, she has assisted clients in numerous estate and trust-based planning matters to protect their assets and provide for their families. From drafting wills, trusts, and incapacity documents to providing advice for her clients, Stephany is committed to assisting each client in a caring and responsive manner when they face the challenging task of administering a loved one's estate. For more information on her practice and experience, visit her bio.