

Tim Gibbons to Present at TBA 2022 Construction Law Forum

Tim Gibbons will present at the Tennessee Bar Association's (TBA) Construction Law Forum 2022. In his presentation, "Liens Against Leaseholds and Public Property," he will cover how to lien a leased property and related matters.

The Construction Law Forum is scheduled for January 28, 2022. For information on the forum, please visit the TBA website.

Tim chairs the Construction and Design section at Chambliss. He holds a background in architecture, which benefits his construction and development clients due to his ability to speak the industry language and quickly understand details. Tim often counsels clients on disputes over differing site conditions, list efficiency, change orders, and defective design. With many years of experience representing and defending clients in matters involving claims, including structure collapses and job site fatalities, Tim also has an innate ability to resolve disputes with other avenues such as mediation and arbitration.
